

STRINGS
MUSIC FESTIVAL

2019 ANNUAL FUND

In 2018, 56% of the programs Strings offered were free to families, youth, seniors, and adults in our community.

Will you help us bring outstanding musical programming to the Yampa Valley?

YOUR DONATION MAKES A DIFFERENCE!

In 2018, generous donors allowed Strings to provide:

68 free events

for the community at the Yampa River Botanic Park, Bud Werner Memorial Library, area schools, and more.

Entertainment and music education for more than 26,000 youth, families, seniors, and adults.

Support for 151 programs and performances including evening concerts and free community events.

28 outreach programs for families, seniors, and community members in the Yampa Valley.

Strings Music Festival is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Ticket sales cover only 37% of our operating costs. We rely on the support of generous donors to make our programming possible.

STRINGS SCHOOL DAYS

Strings School Days is a unique music education program provided by Strings Music Festival at no cost to schools, students, or teachers. Strings School Days creates engaged and enthusiastic students who have greater self-confidence, appreciation for music and the arts, and expanded cultural world views.

Annually, the program serves more than 3,000 K-12 students in 14 schools throughout the Yampa Valley.

Students receive a study guide, created by Strings, that provides exciting projects and information to connect curriculum with performances.
